

Faubus to Bring Other Issues Up in Special Meet

By BOB HARING

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today there definitely would be four items for consideration of legislators at a 2nd special meeting called for next week to deal mainly with congressional redistricting.

He listed two other matters as highly probable and spoke of the possibility that as many as 11 would be included in the formal call, to be issued later today.

Faubus late Thursday said Monday, already selected as the tentative date, for start of the session. Definitely on the agenda besides redistricting will be an appropriation for an overall college bond, a change in election filing procedures, and nuclear energy control.

Other items which Faubus said probably will be included are a measure to tighten up state laws on support of children and a bill to set up a permanent state construction program.

He said bills to appropriate funds for a new vocational training school and for state and district livestock shows might be included.

Faubus said he might have to include the vocational school measure which was defeated in an earlier special session ending Sept. 1, because of commitments to some legislators.

If he includes the vocational school, he said, he will put in the livestock show appropriations, also defeated in the earlier special session.

Faubus said he expects a three or four-day session with little controversy.

A controversy over redistricting has been solved by a compromise. There had been suggestions that opponents of the overall college board plan, passed in the first special session, might try to nullify it by rejecting an appropriation measure.

Faubus said he had not heard of any opposition to the board's appropriation.

He added, however, that enemies of the board had enough strength to beat the appropriation if they wanted to.

He said the board probably would be allocated $35,000 or $40,000 to run for the rest of this session.

Faubus said he also would present names of the 10 board members to the Senate, which must act on the appointments.

Faubus said prosecuting attorneys had asked for new legislation to regulate support of children. He said several states have stricter laws on child support than Arkansas and that tightening up these laws would help with the welfare problem.

Faubus has been critical of some applications of the aid to dependent children program in the past. He has said that the way the program is set up some women have been rewarded financially for having illegitimate children.

Carla's Death Toll Stands at 40 Now

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Hurricane Carla's repercussions continued to haunt Texans today as searchers delved into the storm's wreckage.

Carla's death toll stood at 40 in four states but grim apprehension prevailed as waters continued to recede, revealing more destruction.

Twenty-eight persons were dead in Texas. Kansas counted 5, Missouri 2, and Louisiana 5.

The hurricane, termed one of the most vicious ever to swirl out of the Gulf of Mexico, battered Texas and Louisiana coasts with winds up to 173 miles an hour and tides of nearly 14 feet. It then swept northward to bring torrential downpours and floods to Oklahoma, Kansas, and Missouri.

Authorities could only estimate the damage done to the South Texas areas swept by Carla's tornado winds.

Red Cross survey teams said at least 40,200 homes were destroyed or damaged in the 14 counties hit by the hurricane.

Ralph Shannon, Dallas County Red Cross director, said also destroyed or damaged were 900 farm buildings, 875 other buildings and 340 boats and house trailers.

Hampering those who sought to aid in the gigantic mop-up were impassable highways, threats of disease, disrupted utilities, lack of water to drink and poisonous snakes.

The Texas Highway Department reported many roads remained closed by rainfall floods. Some areas were off-limits to all but those who could prove they had a valid reason for entering.

Crop damage in the highly agricultural state was heavy. Jefferson County, in the southeast corner of the state, reported rice losses amounting to 50 per cent of the crop.

Waller County, also in southeast Texas, was reported to have sustained almost $1.5 million worth of crop losses.

Waller County Agent E. M. Weaver said the cotton crop was a total loss.

Texas Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said Hurricane damage to the Texas Prison Farm System, including the complete loss of 7,200 acres of cotton, will exceed $1 million.

Wilson agreed to organize an emergency committee of charitable trusts and foundations for a Texas Hurricane Relief Fund. He said he will contact more than 200 charitable trusts and foundations to obtain funds to be used for "aiding individual citizens whose homes were damaged by rising water not covered by insurance."

Insurance adjusters, operating from 10 storm offices set up by companies in cooperation with the National Board of Fire Underwriters, inspected damage.

In a few areas the economy returned to near normalcy. The port of Houston started one-way outbound traffic so the 30 ships waiting there could leave to make room for 36 waiting to get in.

The Sheffield Steel mill resumed operations in Houston with only minor damage. The four-day shutdown due to the hurricane cost the plant 10,000 tons of steel production and threw deliveries two weeks late.

The Texas oil industry has resumed normal operations, too, after the shutdown cost some 21 refineries an estimated 10 million barrels in crude runs.

$49.8 Million for Welfare in State in 1960

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The price tag of public welfare in Arkansas last year was $49,848,616, the state welfare Department said today.

Most of the money, $35,722,800, came from the federal government. The state provided $14,125,807.

The figures were contained in the department's annual report, which said $40,556,046 was used for old age assistance, $4,830,274 for aid to dependent children, $1,234,000 for aid to the blind and $2,798,133 for aid to permanently and totally disabled persons.

Thinks Strike Could End by Monday

By YA. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP) — Walter P. Reuther, United Auto Workers president, declined to speculate today whether strikes that have shut off auto production by General Motors Corp. can be ended by Monday, as requested by President Kennedy.

Each side blames the other for the strikes.

Local-level working agreements still had not been reached at 60 of GM's 129 plants and there appeared little hope that GM could be back in full production before the middle of next week at the earliest.

Even at some of the 63 plants where local-level settlements have been effected workmen have not returned to their jobs.

Asked about prospects of complete settlement by Monday, Reuther told newsmen: "I'm not going to speculate on a particular day. We all recognize the urgency of the situation and are working hard."

Pointing to eight settlements within the 24 hours to last midnight, Reuther said if all the strikes had been in one place and settlement had come in one day and night that would have seemed like a tremendous job. The eight settlements involved 22,000 workmen.

Threat of new disruption was averted today when the International Union of Electrical Workers agreed to extend their contract indefinitely, subject to 48 hours cancellation notice, for five of six IUE-represented GM plants.

The six IUE plants employ approximately 25,000 persons; the 123 UAW plants about 325,000.

GM and the UAW have reached agreement on a national economic package, but both have insisted that supplemental working agreements must be effected at local levels before any new national contract is signed. Also still hanging are a series of non-economic demands at the national level.

Some military officials are hopeful that Gen. Lucius Clay, named Kennedy's personal representative in Berlin, will be delegated authority to approve or order swift actions to counter any Soviet harassment.

They cited the possibility that Soviet fighter planes again might buzz or otherwise interfere with commercial craft flying the air routes across Communist East Germany to West Berlin. There were two such incidents Thursday involving U. S. airliners.

As one possible means of coping with such Soviet moves, they suggested that U. S. jet fighters could mount airborne patrols at the West German entrances to the air corridors, ready to streak to an airliner's aid if called.

Pledge Help for Hurricane Victims

GOULD, Ark. (AP) — Fifty farmers in the Gould area have pledged the proceeds from approximately 50 acres of soybeans to aid residents of Port Lavaca, Tex., in their recovery from hurricane Carla.

W. F. Wilson, a spokesman for the Gould group, said Thursday, "Those folks are in trouble down there. We thought it would be decent to try to help them."

Port Lavaca is a cotton and corn farming area.

The Gould area, in southeast Arkansas, mainly grows cotton. "We figured they had kindred interests with us," said Victor Holtzoff, an official of the Holtzoff Brothers grain elevator here. "We knew what would happen if a hurricane hit our crop."

Wilson said officials of the grain elevator have advanced $2,000 to the Gould area farmers for use in the relief project. He said the money would be turned over to Port Lavaca officials for use as they see fit.

Freer Hand Urged for Commanders

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Military chiefs reportedly are urging that U. S. commanders in Europe be given a freer hand to respond promptly—and as they see fit—to any Soviet harassment of movements in or out of Berlin.

Some Pentagon sources contend Gen. Lauris Norstad, top U. S. and Allied commander in Europe, is operating under too restricted authority to deal on the spot with such Communist actions.

These sources said State Department officials involved in planning U. S. moves in the Berlin crisis are intent on trying to anticipate all possible situations and to lay down specific instructions on how to cope with them.

The military view, as expounded by the Defense Department sources, is that all possible situations cannot be anticipated and that armed forces commanders would be handicapped if they were not allowed to exercise their judgment according to the circumstances.

Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, was understood to have taken up this question with President Kennedy. There was no indication of any presidential action.

Some military officials are hopeful that Gen. Lucius Clay, named Kennedy's personal representative in Berlin, will be delegated authority to approve or order swift actions to counter any Soviet harassment.

They cited the possibility that Soviet fighter planes again might buzz or otherwise interfere with commercial craft flying the air routes across Communist East Germany to West Berlin. There were two such incidents Thursday involving U. S. airliners.

Reds Buzz U. S. Airliners in Berlin Corridor

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet buzzing of U. S. airliners in the air corridors to Berlin spurred consideration today of possible Western counter measures.

Two incidents involving Soviet fighter planes were announced by the State Department Thursday night shortly after Western foreign ministers completed the first session of a three-day conference here on Berlin policy planning.

The ministers were expected, diplomats said, to take the incidents into account in their meetings today.

One of their major considerations since the Berlin crisis started has been to decide what steps would be taken by the Western powers if the Soviets or Communist East Germans began harassing aircraft using the Berlin corridors.

Diplomatic informants suggested that the buzzing of two Pan American aircraft would bring quick decisions on the part of the U. S. and Allied governments about protective measures—which could mean the use of Western fighters defensively in the air corridors.

Within the U. S. government, it was reported, military leaders have been studying the possibility of stationing fighter planes near the air corridor terminals in West Germany to have them ready for instant action if it appeared that an airliner in the corridors was endangered by Communist fighter plane buzzing.

The State Department announced the incidents Thursday said that "Soviet fighters endangered the flights of two American planes."

The department said a Soviet MIG circled a Pan American Berlin-Hamburg flight just outside of Berlin in the northernmost of the three 20-mile wide corridors.

"The Soviet fighter circled the airliner several times," the State Department said, "then pulled alongside and for a short distance flew 20 feet off the right wing."

About three hours later, the statement said, another Pan American flight was approached by two fighters in the south corridor about 80 miles from Berlin. "One Soviet fighter followed in a tail position," the statement said. "The other crossed it at its nose at a distance of 100 feet."

In another air incident Thursday, two West German military pilots, flew across East German territory in jet planes and landed safely at a Berlin airport. They said they strayed off course because of instrument failure.

The West German government quickly apologized to the Soviet Embassy in Bonn and the three Western occupation powers.

The East German regime called the incident a "monstrously provocative act" and charged that the two pilots were on a spying mission.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville, British Foreign Secretary, said today.

U.S. Sets Off First Nuclear Explosion Since Back in 1958

1st Baptist's Dr. John to Leave Hope

Dr. John H. McClanahan has resigned the pastorate of the First Baptist Church in Hope to accept a similar position in Blytheville, Ark. A native of Little Rock, he moved to Hope from Louisville, Ky. June 1, 1957. His ministry with the Hope church has extended over four years.

During this time, 499 persons have united with the church, 163 of these coming for baptism. Total gifts to all causes have amounted to $336,742.64.

Nine new deacons were ordained under Dr. McClanahan's ministry: Leon Davis, Ray Lawrence McDowell Turner, Bill Gunter, John Hawkins, W. L. Tate, Leonard Ellis, Frank King and James Shuffield. Three young men were ordained to the ministry: Robert Harris, Gerald Jackson, Ernest Whitten and two more licensed to preach: Charles R. Tittle and John David Whitlow.

On Jan. 1, 1959, the First Baptist Mission in Hope was formally organized to become the Calvary Baptist Church. J. D. Passmore is now serving as pastor of this new congregation.

All building indebtedness for the First Baptist Church in Hope has been paid, and $62,000 has been accumulated in a new building fund. A planning and survey committee, in consultation with the Architectural Department of the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board of Nashville, Tenn., has outlined an over-all building program for future years. Ground will be broken for the first unit in these plans on Sept. 17.

For the past two years, Gilbert Thomas of Tulsa, Okla., has served as minister of music and education for the Hope church. A graded choir program has been organized and new Baptist hymnals placed in the sanctuary. A new $10,000 Allen Electric Organ has also been installed in the sanctuary.

Dr. McClanahan will move with his family to Blytheville next week. He will begin his ministry with the First Baptist Church of that city on Sept. 24. His last services with the Hope church will be on Sunday, Sept. 17. The public is invited to attend.

Neither half of the Soviets' one-two punch came as a surprise. Since Moscow broke its testing moratorium at the start of this month, Soviet nuclear explosions have been an almost daily occurrence.

The rocket test had been awaited since Moscow earlier this month warned shipping away from the target area, about 1,000 miles southwest of Hawaii.

The United States has fired super Atlas rockets at distances of 9,000 miles, from Cape Canaveral, Fla., past the southern tip of Africa.

Weather Bureau specialists estimated Thursday that about half the low-altitude fallout from the Soviet nuclear series will fall to earth within the next month.

The Public Health Service said fallout detection stations at Salt Lake City, Utah, and Boise, Idaho, have reported increases in atmospheric radiation.

But the agency said, they are not considered significant from a health standpoint and are far below readings recorded at the 1957-58 nuclear weapons tests.

Told to Handle Cash Carefully

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus Thursday told the heads of various state agencies to be especially careful in handling $20 million in construction funds appropriated by the recent special session of the legislature. In a closed-door meeting, Faubus told the officials he would keep track of their projects through a building consultant to be hired by the state purchasing agent.

Youth Killed in Auto Accident

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — A Hot Springs youth was killed and three persons were injured Thursday night when the car in which they were riding crashed into the Bull Bayou bridge on Highway 270 about two miles west of here.

Killed was Johnny Branch, 16. His car hit the left side of the railing of the bridge over Lake Hamilton, then careened into the right side. State Trooper Glen Minton said Branch's body was thrown out and lodged between two concrete panels on the bridge.

Hoyt M. Allen, 17, of Hot Springs, was critically hurt. Less seriously injured were Patricia Reynolds, 14, and Sandra Lee Powell, 15, both of Hot Springs.

In making the announcement, President Kennedy said the United States "affirms its readiness to negotiate a controlled test ban agreement of the widest possible scope."

The new test, Kennedy said, is the first in a series. He reported that the United States was forced reluctantly into renewing nuclear explosions because Russia now has resorted to them.

Russia has fired 10 test shots since Sept. 1.

Before that, a moratorium had been in effect for nearly three years while efforts dragged on to reach an agreement on banning further tests permanently.

The last previous test by the United States also was in Nevada, on Oct. 30, 1958.

Russia had set off a nuclear explosion five days earlier and so far as has been determined the Soviets touched off no additional tests until Sept. 1 of this year.

Kennedy noted that today's U. S. test produced no fallout.

"This, he said in a statement, "is in marked contrast to Soviet nuclear tests in the atmosphere."

Meanwhile, there was still no official word here on when the United States would resume nuclear testing. However, it was learned that the tests are expected to start in Nevada within a week or 10 days.

Neither half of the Soviets' one-two punch came as a surprise. Since Moscow broke its testing moratorium at the start of this month, Soviet nuclear explosions have been an almost daily occurrence.

Test Follows a Series by Soviet Russia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States fired today its first nuclear weapons test since 1958.

President Kennedy announced that it was an "underground nuclear weapons development test of low yield," at the test site in Nevada.

The explosion took place at 1 p. m. EDT. In making the announcement, President said the United States "affirms its readiness to negotiate a controlled test ban agreement of the widest possible scope."

The new test, Kennedy said, is the first in a series. He reported that the United States was forced reluctantly into renewing nuclear explosions because Russia now has resorted to them.

Meat Packers Are Accused by Freeman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman today accused seven meat-packing companies, three national food store chains and two lamb dealers of trading practices which have the effect of manipulating or controlling prices of lamb.

He said the charges were "gravely serious," and he issued a formal complaint of violation of the Packers and Stockyards Act. That law directs the Agriculture Department to police livestock and meat markets against unfair, deceptive, fraudulent, discriminatory and monopolistic practices in the meat-packing industry and in the marketing of livestock.

Those charged in the complaint were James Allan & Sons of San Francisco; Armour & Co., Goldring Packing Co. of Los Angeles; John Morrell & Co.; Ruth Packing Co.; Swift & Co.; Wilson & Co.; American Stores Co.; Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.; Safeway Stores; and lamb dealers Dwight L. Heath of Lamar, Colo., and Perry Holley of Ogden, Utah.

The department said issuance of the complaint does not prove those named have violated the law. A department hearing examiner will hold a hearing on the charges beginning Nov. 14, unless those named waived such hearings by admitting the charges or fail to answer the complaint.

If a hearing is held, the department's judicial officer then determines whether the evidence substantiates the allegations.

If he finds violations, he can order them to stop further violations.

In a statement accompanying the complaint, Freeman said that if the allegations are proved, they will explain in part at least why lamb prices have not been reacting to marketing conditions during the last several years.

Red Minister Ready to Meet Rusk

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet government announced today that its foreign minister is ready to meet U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk, and official British sources reported a firm Western decision has been taken to propose an East-West conference on Berlin and Germany.

The Soviet Foreign Ministry in Moscow said Gromyko "is ready to enter into an exchange of opinion with United States Secretary of State Dean Rusk on German problems" and indicated a meeting would take place at the U.N. General Assembly session opening next Tuesday.

These developments came as the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany assembled for a three-day strategy conference in Washington.

The Moscow broadcast said the Soviet statement was intended to answer President Kennedy's declaration Wednesday — that the United States is ready to enter serious talks with the Russians if the Russians show a desire for such talks.

The Western decision to propose a new conference on the Berlin and German problems was taken, informants said, before the four Allied foreign ministers got to Washington.

It had been agreed—with France expressing some reservations about the timing of the initiative — that Rusk would open informal talks with Gromyko on the sidelines of the U.N. Assembly.

Rusk, informants said, would state the Allied powers' willingness to take part in a conference provided its terms would not be confined to Russia's scheme for

State Faster Than Others in Jobs Gain

By JOHN R. JUTTON
Associated Press Staff Writer

Arkansas gained new jobs faster than seven other states surveyed last year by the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission.

The AIDC study showed an 11.4 per cent increase in existing jobs in Arkansas for the 1960 calendar year.

The survey recorded 100,700 jobs in Arkansas, an increase of 12,043 during the year with a potential payroll hike of nearly $36,102,000.

Richard A. DuVall, an AIDC staff member, attributed the increase to a readjustment of industry, a good labor supply and the White mums and pompons and palms decorated the First Baptist church of St. Albans, Vt., for the wedding Tuesday, Aug. 29 of Miss Doreen Plattner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Plattner of St. Albans to Mr. Charles R. Tittle, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Tittle of this city.

Officially at the 7:30 p. m. ceremony was the Rev. Ward Robinson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a wall-length gown of puffed chantilly lace and silk organza having a fitted bodice, scalloped sabrina neckline and capped sleeves. Her bouffant veil was caught to a Swedish crown of crystals and pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with white cymbidium orchids.

Miss Sharon Plattner was her sister's only attendant.

The bridegroom's father served as best man, ushers being James G. Tittle, James H. Mitchell, Stephen McClure and William Castro, Jr.

Assisting at the reception, held afterwards at the church, were Mesdames Pearl Mitchell, Anna Pullin, Emmet Robinson, Howard Collins, Frank Annie, Clyde McClure, Cliff Beckett and Miss Mary Frances Webb.

The couple is residing in Austin, Tex.

Both were graduates from Ouchenta Baptist College, in Arkadelphia and will do graduate work this fall at the University of Texas where she holds a University Fellowship and he has a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship and a Danforth Fellowship.

rise of a new market area.

While larger survey states such as Tennessee and Alabama reported greater numerical gains, their percentage rise fell short of Arkansas.

Tennessee showed an increase of over 10,000 more jobs than did Arkansas but also had 300,000 existing jobs or three times that of Arkansas.

The same was true of Alabama. States participating in the survey and their gains were Arkansas 11.4 per cent, Mississippi 8.4, Tennessee 7.3, Alabama 6.1, Kentucky 4, Kansas 2.9, Louisiana 2.7 and Missouri 2.6.

In 1955, the survey shows, Arkansas ranked sixth out of the eight states in the number of new jobs with 5,90 and in new industries with 59.

Five years later, however, the state had advanced to third with 12,034 new jobs and 63 new industries. These figures are not based on a per cent increase for existing jobs.

The AIDC, to show Arkansas' rapid industrial growth in recent months, reports that during the fiscal year July 1, 1960 through June 30 this year, 94 new plants announced openings for 5,853 new jobs.

At the same time, 30 plants announced plans for expanding their facilities to increase employment by 2,784.

For the fiscal period, new jobs in Arkansas totaled 8,637.

Many Arkansas communities have taken advantage of Act 9 of 1960 which allows the cities to issue revenue bonds to finance new industries, which in turn add jobs.

A case in point is the much publicized removal of the Norge plant at Muskegon, Mich., to Fort Smith which raised the hackles of Michigan lawmakers.

Construction of the new Norge plant was financed by a revenue bond issue.

During the fiscal year July 1, 1960-June 30, 1961, Little Rock created 803 jobs either through new industries or expansion programs.

Fort Smith reported 750, Osceola 503, Waldron 290, Searcy 247 and West Memphis 185.

Perhaps the most dramatic increase will be at Gassville where a new shirt factory will eventually employ 1,500 persons.

Only Gov. Orval E. Faubus' signature is needed to clear the way for sale of apartment units in Arkansas.

The recent legislature passed a bill to permit sale of individual apartments.

Husband Still an Adolescent

By HELEN WORDEN ESKINE

Dear Helen: Everybody is out of step but Jim as far as my husband is concerned. He is right and the others, including me, are wrong. By count, I have three children. Actually there are four—my husband being the biggest baby of all.

Reared by older brothers and sisters, he has never grown up. His lack of consideration has me at my wits end. Time and again he will bolt into the house crying, "Get ready. We are leaving in 10 minutes for Podunk," or whatever the town is where he thinks business calls him.

With three youngsters, the oldest of whom is six, this is impossible. But if I don't go, he puts on pretends to sleep and ignores us all. How can I cope with such a temperament? —Hopeless

Dear Hopeless: Next time your husband springs an unexpected trip, tell him you will go provided he dresses the children while you make ready. Give him responsibility. Assume he is adult. Before long, he will get the idea and be acting like one. But since he has not yet grown up emotionally, have patience. You cannot expect an adolescent to respond like an adult.

Dear Helen: My stepfather has been mean to me ever since he and Mother married a year ago. She sides with him. Right now I am staying with his daughter-in-law. Since I am only 11, she fears for me after what happened the other day. He grabbed me by the hair, flung me against the wall, then threw me to the floor. The screams of his daughter-in-law saved me. She says he is moody. All I know is that every time one of these moods hits him, he takes it out on me. What can

I do? —Stepdaughter
Dear Stepdaughter: Did your Mother and Father divorced or is he dead? If your father lives, write him the truth. If not, ask the kind daughter-in-law to consult the social worker or judge of the local Children's Court. Certain laws have been made for the protection of children. One could be evoked in your case.

Dear Helen: I am a teen-ager with a problem of overweight. My doctor has given me a diet but I can't seem to stick to it. People tell me that it only takes will power to remain on such a diet. How does one acquire this will power? —Helpless

Dear Helpless: The sparkling of the will is desire. If you want some one thing badly enough, you will go after it no matter what. If you desire to lose weight is so, the results will be just that.

Stand before a full length mirror. See yourself as others see you, then having faced the worst, know that this need not be, if you make loss of weight your Number One project. Arouse your enthusiasm by picturing yourself in a size 10 dress. List the benefits of losing weight. Think of the additional self-confidence which comes with being your prettiest self. If the desire burns hot enough, you will not lack the will power. Just remember that the will as well as the body needs exercise.

Send your problems to Helen Worden Eskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Ambition."

Adult Education Program

An appropriation of $50,000 was made for each year of the 1961-62 biennium by the General Assembly. The State Board of Education has budgeted $47,000 for this new program in 1961-62 school year. Adult education of a general nature designed to upgrade the training of adults at the elementary and secondary level is a fast growing, relatively new development in education in the nation. There is no question but there is a need for such a program in Arkansas and the state administrators, county and local administrators have sought to inaugurate the program on an educationally sound basis.

Courses may be developed in a variety of fields such as language arts, mathematics, social studies, science and foreign languages at either the elementary or secondary level. Courses in commercial education or other vocational subjects will not be approved. Any local school board or county board of education is eligible to sponsor classes in adult education.

Any resident of Arkansas, 18 years of age or older, having less than a high school education, who has been out of school for six months or longer, may be enrolled in classes in adult education. (Day school pupils are not eligible).

A meeting pertaining to this program, will be held at Yerger High School Tuesday, Sept. 19 at 7:30 p.m. All persons who are interested are urged to be present. W. V. Rutherford, Principal of Yerger will be present to give the information and to answer questions.

Faubus to Bring

"I'll see you Monday."

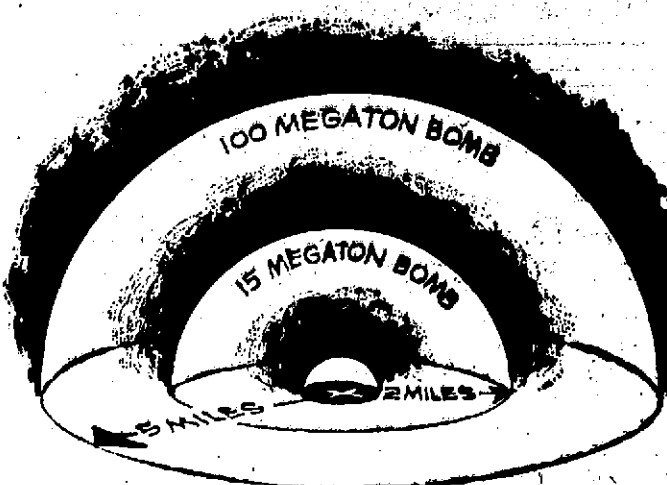

Faubus issued a formal call for a special session of the legislature. The subject of the call is congressional redistricting, but there also will be some other business.

Both houses will convene Monday and may wind up business before the end of the week. Faubus decided late Thursday afternoon to go ahead and issue the call after the last hope of expanding the U.S. House seemed to have been lost.

The legislature must pass a new congressional redistricting bill, providing for the loss of two congressmen. Faubus had delayed the call, hoping that the House might be expanded and the state would lose only one representative.

The governor's official document calling the session wasn't ready Thursday night. But Faubus said it will include bills giving the state Health Department regulatory control over the peacetime Fallout from the big bomb could cover 140,000 square miles.

Ex-Premier of Turkey Gets Death

YASSIADA, Turkey (AP) — A special tribunal today sentenced deposed Premier Adnan Menderes and ex-President Celal Bayar to die on the gallows.

Just hours before the sentence was pronounced Menderes suffered a serious nervous collapse and was unable to appear in court. Menderes and Bayar were condemned for violating the constitution during the years they held Turkey under their iron rule. Eight co-defendants were condemned with them — six for violating the constitution and two for embezzling public funds.

Hours after his collapse, doctors said Menderes was improving. Newsman were escorted to a hospital room on this prison island to see him. He appeared conscious use of nuclear energy in the state; an undetermined appropriation for the new Higher Education Board of Control, and a measure revising the election laws to permit state and district candidates to pay their filing fees to the state treasurer's office instead of to each county treasurer.

The governor said he has not decided whether he will ask the general assembly to pass 4 bills defeated in the first special session. They would give the state a total of $417,000, and appropriate $275,000 for a second state vocational trade school.

Faubus said he would include either all of the four bills, or none of them.

but seriously ill.

The Western-minded Menderes, 62, was overthrown by a military coup in May 1960, after ruling Turkey with an iron hand for 10 years. He was seized attempting to flee.

Gen. Cemal Gursel, a little known military commander who took over power, put Menderes and other leaders of his Democrats party on trial Oct. 14, 1960, on a variety of charges ranging from misusing public funds to terrorism.

Even before the court's verdict was announced, a member of the military junta predicted the conviction and expressed belief all would be marched to the gallows within 24 hours of their sentencing.

The court also sentenced 15 defendants in the mass trial to life prison terms on the same charges.

Sentenced to death with Menderes and Bayar was ex-Foreign minister Fatin Rustu Zorlu, ex-Finance Minister Hasan Polatkan, former speaker of the National Assembly Refik Koraltan, former National Assembly officers Agah Erozan and Ibrahim Kirazoglu and three members of a special investigation committee Menderes established to investigate the opposition Republican party, Hamdi Sancar, Nusrey Kiriscioğlu and Bahadır Dulger.

The death sentences will go to the military junta this afternoon for final judgment. The junta can commute the sentences to life or banishment.

If the junta approves the sentences, they will be executed no later than sundown Saturday, a military spokesman said.

Bayar, 77, stood without sign of emotion and listened to presiding Justice Salim Basol read out the death sentence. Bayar tried to

Highway Mowers Ruled Dangerous

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mowers used by the Arkansas Highway Department to trim rights of way were classed as dangerous instruments Thursday by the state Claims Commission.

As a result, persons claiming damage to car or house windows from objects hurled by the mowers will no longer have to prove negligence on the part of the mower operator.

The commission's action, however, has no effect on claims based on damage to windows by gravel. This was held as a natural hazard drivers must contend with.

hang himself with his belt a year ago while awaiting trial. But in court, he was the most outspoken of the defendants, often engaging in angry exchanges with the court.

Members of the cabinet also refrained from emotion as they listened to the sentences climaxing the 10-month trial on this Marmara Sea island.

A former National Assembly officer, Ilhan Sipahioğlu, in the dock with Bayar and cabinet officers, was acquitted. He broke into a slow smile as some of his co-defendants nodded to him in congratulation.

In all, 592 defendants were to appear in court, including 88 freed during the trials. These were summoned to the island for the verdict.

All were charged in varying degrees with the violation of the Turkish constitution provides the deres' regime. Article 146 of the Turkish constitution provides the death sentence for those convicted of abrogating the constitution or interfering with the function of the National Assembly.

Menderes rose to power battling against government restrictions on the Turkish press and people—curbs he imposed himself later, bringing his downfall.

The dapper, stocky Menderes once said: "I will never be a former premier."

His overthrow came after a series of student demonstrations for more political freedom that drew the support of the military, which traditionally had kept their hands off politics in Turkey.

Menderes was a firm friend of the West in foreign policy and a recipient of big American loans. He took Turkey into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and was one of the organizers of the original Baghdad Pact.

Babe Ruth Can Catch Roger Maris Tonight

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Babe Ruth can catch Roger Maris tonight. That's the situation that faces Maris for the first time this season as he moves his assault on the Bambino's home-run record to Detroit, where the American League-leading New York Yankees will be trying to clinch their 11th pennant in the last 13 years.

Maris, with 56 homers and a one-game edge over Ruth's record 60 pace of 1927, heads into the Detroit two-nighter with a five-game homer drought after the Chicago White Sox held him to three singles in an 8-3 and 4-3 doubleheader sweep over the Yankees Thursday.

"I think I've still got a chance—if I can get hot in Detroit," said Maris. "I haven't given up. I like to hit in Detroit. Maybe I'll get hot there."

Teammate Mickey Mantle, with 53 homers, said after the White Sox twinbill that he was "about ready to give up. I don't see how I can make it now. I haven't got a chance now—even in 162 games."

Despite the doubleheader loss, the Yankees reduced their magic pennant-clinching number when the second-place Tigers lost to Kansas City 5-2, and can wrap up the flag by taking three of four from Detroit. The Tigers are 10½ games back in the standings.

In the only other AL games scheduled Thursday, Los Angeles beat Minnesota 5-1 in the opener if a doubleheader, then lost the nightcap 3-1.

In the National League the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers defeated Pittsburgh 7-6 and moved within five games of the first-place Cincinnati Reds, who were idle. Philadelphia beat San Francisco 4-3 in 10 innings and St. Louis defeated Chicago twice, 8-7 and 6-5 in 11 innings.

The White Sox snapped the Yankees 13-game winning streak, their longest of the season, when Floyd Robinson smacked a two-run homer and Jim Landis hit a three-run shot off rookie Rolfe Sheldon (9-5) in the first inning. Ray Herbert (10-12) won it with relief help from Billy Pierce and Warren Hacker in the late innings.

The Yankees took a 3-0 lead in the seventh inning of the nightcap on Elston Howard's two-run homer, singles by Bill Skowron and Hee Lopez and Clete Boyer's sacrifice fly. But the White Sox scored three in the ninth after two were out to hang the first defeat on relief specialist Luis Arroyo since June 19.

Wayne Causey hit a home run for the A's and saved Bob Shaw (11-12) with a diving catch of Jake Wood's liner in the eighth that stopped the Tigers after they had one run in and two men on. Dick Brown drove in both Detroit.

Colleges to Kick Off Grid Season

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The 1961 college football season opens Saturday with a rather subdued fare the first time out this year.

But they'll show the nation a couple of interesting teams on television and begin a couple of hectic conference battles right away.

Pitt's Panthers, considered one of the East's top independents, and always-interesting Miami (Fla.) kick off the proceedings Saturday afternoon in Miami's Orange Bowl. This game is the first of the weekly televised games, beginning at 3:15 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, ABC-TV.

The Southern Conference cranks up with West Virginia, winless in 1960, entertaining Richmond and William & Mary meeting Virginia Tech, favored to win the title, in a night game at Roanoke.

Defending Southern Conference champion Virginia Military, 7-2-1 last year, opens against independent Marshall.

Three of the four Missouri Valley conference members are in action while Eastern independent Villanova plays Miami (Ohio) in a night game. Big Eight member Iowa State, sparked by halfback Dave Hoppman, plays intrastate rival Drake.

Missouri Valley champion Wichita is at Toledo for a night game. Cincinnati hosts Dayton and Tulsa entertains Hardin-Simmons, also both at night.

Utah State 1960 Skyline Champ with a 9-1 mark, opens against Texas Western at night, while this year's Skyline favorite, Wyoming, plays Montana at Billings, Mon., in the afternoon. A third Skyline game pits Colorado State U. at Utah in a night game.

Loan Repayment Is Requested

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—U.S. District Judge J. Smith Henley has taken under advisement the claim runs with a single before Cawgys play and a seventh inning homer.

Paul Foytack (10-10) was the loser.

Duke Snider Keeps Dodger Hopes Alive

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Duke Snider, 35, a gray-haired veteran among a talented group of fuzzy-cheeked youngsters, has kept alive the Los Angeles Dodgers' flickering hopes of overtaking the Cincinnati Reds in the National League pennant scramble.

Snider did it with a three-run pinch-hit homer in the last of the ninth that beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 7-6 Thursday night and moved the second-place Dodgers within five games of the league-leading Reds, who were idle.

The Dodgers victory left the Reds' magic number at nine. Any combination of nine Cincinnati victories and/or Los Angeles defeats will give the Reds their first NL flag since 1940.

Wes Covington's second homer of the game in the 10th inning gave Philadelphia a 4-3 victory over San Francisco and pushed the Giants into fourth place behind idle Milwaukee. St. Louis took a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs, 8-7 and 6-5 in 11 innings.

In the American League, Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle were held homerless as the Chicago White Sox whipped the first-place New York Yankees 8-3 and 4-3. Kansas City beat second-place Detroit 5-2. Minnesota and Los Angeles split, the Angels winning the opener 5-1 and the Twins taking the nightcap 3-1.

The Dodgers trailed 6-3 going into the ninth, but started acting up when Ron Fairly singled, Walby Moon walked and Frank Howard chased reliever Clem Labine with a run-producing single. Elroy Face came in, tagged out Tommy Davis on a sacrifice play, then got two strikes by Snider before the Duke sent one over the right field fence.

That gave the win to Ed Roebuck. Face, who was making his 50th appearance as the fourth pitcher, is 6-10.

Covington's second homer won it for Phil's starter John Buzhardt (6-16) and tagged Dick Lemay (3-6), with the loss after the Giants had tied it in the sixth on Willie Mays' 30th homer, with one on.

of Thomas P. Florida of Osceola for $32,000 he says he lent his two brothers, who are involved in an $11 million tax suit.

The many assets of Andrew and George Florida, also of Osceola, are in receivership pending disposition of the government's claim for $11,708,525 it says the two owe in unpaid income taxes.

Henley took the claim under consideration Thursday after a hearing in which Thomas Florida said the loan was guaranteed by a pledge agreement. The government contends the pledge agreement covered loans made to the brothers only by the Union Planters National Bank in Memphis. They owe the bank $195,000.

Henley also took under consideration a $7,397 attorney fee sought by the Memphis law firm of Canada, Russell and Turner, who represent the bank in the loan transaction; and a $7,729 payment sought by Edward L. McHoney Jr. of Little Rock for representing Thomas P. Florida.

Williamsport WRAPUP—A good idea of what goes on in the Little League World Series at Williamsport, Pa., can be had from this exciting action. Arnold Page (8), of Terre Haute, Ind., slams into catcher Dennis Morgan of El Campo, Tex., so hard he jolts his mask. Inset shows Rafael Montemayor, the Monterrey, Mexico, pitcher bearing down against Pirmasens, Germany, as he pitched a perfect game to bring his team a 4-0 victory.
